

A Minister's Strength

UNCHANGABLE JEHOVAH

*When I am discouraged in my ministry and full of doubts of my self,
fasten me upon the rock of thy eternal election,
then my hands will not hang down,
and I shall have hope for myself and others.
Thou dost know thy people by name,
and wilt at the appointed season
lead them out of a natural to a gracious state
by thy effectual calling.
This is the ground of my salvation,
the object of my desire,
the motive of my ministry.
Keep me from high thoughts of myself
or my work,
for I am nothing but sin and weakness;
in me no good dwells,
and my best works are but sin.
Humble me to the dust before thee.
Root and tear out the poisonous weed
of self-righteousness,
and show me my utter nothingness;
Keep me sensible of my sinnership;
Sink me deeper into penitence and self-abhorrence;
Break the Dagon of pride in pieces
before the ark of thy presence;
Demolish the Babel of self-opinion,
and scatter it to the wind;
Level to the ground my Jericho walls
of a rebel heart;
Then grace, grace, will be my experience and cry.
I am a poor, feeble creature when faith
is not in exercise,
like an eagle with pinioned wings;
Grant me to rest on thy power and faithfulness,
and to know that there are two things worth living for:
to further thy cause in the world,
and to do good to the souls and bodies of men;
This is my ministry, my life, my prayer, my end.
Grant me grace that I shall not fail.

Indore Baptist Church

2017 Bible Conference

June 23 - 25

Welcome

Welcome to the Indore Baptist Church 2017 Bible Conference. It is our immense joy and privilege to have you with us in the House of God. As we fellowship with one another, please be in prayer for the people of God. Pray for the Church, pray for the preachers, and pray for the souls who hear the Word of God today.

*O how I love thy holy law!
'Tis daily my delight;
And thence my meditations draw
Divine advice by night.*

*My waking eyes prevent the day
To meditate thy word;
My soul with longing melts away
To hear thy gospel, Lord.*

*How doth thy word my heart engage!
How well employ my tongue!
And in my tiresome pilgrimage,
Yields me a heav'nly song.*

*Am I a stranger or at home,
'Tis my perpetual feast;
Not honey dropping from the comb
So much allures the taste.*

*No treasures so enrich the mind;
Nor shall thy word be sold
For loads of silver well refined,
Nor heaps of choicest gold.*

*When nature sinks, and spirits droop,
Thy promises of grace
Are pillars to support my hope,
And there I write thy praise.*

Isaac Watts. Ps. 119. Part 5.

“Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.” (2Tim 2:15-16)

The members of the Church at Indore would like to express our appreciation to the speakers and visitors that have come to be with us. We pray that the Lord will bless you and use you in such a way that the Church will be blessed by your presence and by the message that you bring to us.

“The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth. The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.” (Eccl 12:10-11)
